Biography

Dr Example was awarded the OBE in 1995 for services to manufacturing and the community. He is an experienced and successful company director with three decades of leadership in public and private organisations and has a 25-year record of achievement in revitalising public and private organisations. He is a chartered engineer holding a PhD in Aeronautical Engineering from Manchester University, and is the founder of the Example Partnership, specialists in organisational transformation. He is a former Vice President of the Institute of Management and Development. He is a coach and mentor of some repute and a successful author.

His wife Ann is an experienced education and voluntary sector professional. She has developed particular expertise in working with volunteers who run support groups, fundraise and organise events both locally and nationally. Between 1995 and 1998 Ann set up a national network of support groups for the Childless Association. Ann now works with several local charities.
